

EX-JUNCOS

LO-FI INDIE ROCK

Ex-Juncos came together in 2023 as an experiment. Singer/guitarist Jill Rogers and drummer Andrew K. Lau arrived from very different backgrounds - Rogers as the singer with the highly regarded Bay Area honky-tonk band Crying Time, as well as vocalist for Orchestra Nostalgico, and her own little big band Imperial Jazz Co. Lau's experience was in the post-punk and noise scene in Minneapolis with Zapruder's Slungshot and Fly Republic.

In Ex-Juncos, those different backgrounds are burned away, leaving behind grounded, roomy melodies, static and noise, occasional odd time signatures, and pointed words.

On their first release, The Early Years, songs range from the anthemic Champion to the post punk pop of Lemons, from the epic ballad of lover lost, Favorite Son, to the ethereal Waterline, with Rogers' alternate-tuned guitar and enigmatic lyrics accompanied by Lau on metal pot lids.

Website: <https://www.ex-juncos.com>

Booking: exjuncos@gmail.com

Bandcamp: <https://ex-juncos.bandcamp.com/album/the-early-years>

YouTube: <https://www.youtube.com/@Ex-Juncos>

Instagram: <https://www.instagram.com/exjuncos>

Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/ex.juncos>